Excursion to Rijeka, Trsat & Kastav

Nov 25, 2026 9:30 AM

Hotel Lobby

Discover Rijeka, Trsat and Kastav with Barbara! During the approximately 20-minute drive to Rijeka, you will already gain fascinating insights into the eventful history of this port city. Upon arrival in Rijeka, the tour begins with a walk through the harbor and the lively old town, including the fish and green market, as well as numerous historical buildings and landmarks. The city's history spans from prehistoric times through Gothic and Baroque periods to the strong influences of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy, each era has left its mark on the cityscape. The market halls, dating back to 1885, impress with their variety of regional products, from fresh goods from the hinterland to the daily catch from the Adriatic Sea. This is followed by a stroll along the Korzo, the city's bustling promenade with its street cafés, and through the narrow streets of the old town. Along the way, you will see the Baroque Cathedral of St. Vitus and the famous Leaning Tower. After a short break, the tour continues up to Trsat, the oldest Marian pilgrimage site in Croatia. The Franciscans still preserve valuable sacred treasures here today. From a height of 137 meters, you can enjoy an impressive view over the entire Bay of Rijeka. The Trsat Fortress (entrance approx. €1.5–3, Included in the price) also adds a special atmosphere to this location. The journey then continues to Kastav, a charming small town situated on a 377-meter-high hill.

The well-preserved medieval town walls with nine towers, narrow streets, and small squares tell the story of a rich past. At the same time, the location offers wide views over the Kvarner Bay and the surrounding nature.
